Dear Parent/Guardian,

Year 10 & 11 GCSE May Half Term Revision Workshops

As the exam season is now well underway, I would like to begin by thanking you for the support you have already given your child. Your encouragement, routines at home and guidance makes a real difference during this time.

To continue supporting students through the remainder of their exams, we have put together an offer for extra revision session running in school over the May half term. These sessions are designed to offer an extra opportunity for students to revise with their teachers before their formal examination.

However, it is important to emphasise that these sessions alone are not enough. Students must continue to revise independently at home each day. Regular practice, reviewing notes, completing past papers and revisiting weaker topics will have the biggest impact on their final outcomes.

Thank you once again for your continued support.
